Canal was then referred as above.

not understand this exactly. Why had he not been consulted?

Mr. Miller withdrew his report until some future time, when the other members of the committee should have been cousuited.

[A message was here received from the Assembly.]

Mr. Carroll rose and said, he hoped the gentleman would be allowed to make his report. He had just examined it, and assented to its sentiment. Mr. M. then read his report in favor of the bill.

Mr. Branara said he must say this report came from a member of the committee, and he must dissent. He could not consent to allow the introduction of what he considered a muddy stream into the sea of our literature, rather than a pure river of water. He deemed this dictionary a mixed and mongrel affair, and one deleterious to the student. When Bancreft and others condemned it, we may well call it in question. He said he would soon present a report on the subject.

Mr. Carroll said this dictionary met with the general acceptance of scholars and the community. There were exceptions, but they were exceptions only. He hoped the bill would become a law.

The bill was finally sent to the Committee of the Whole.

WASHINGTON, June 19, 1851. ME RETURN AND HIS SPEECHES—THE CENTRAL AMERICAN SLIEVEDAMMON PROTECTORATE EXPLODED—CALLED WINA LAND COMMISSIONERS, ETC., ETC. I am authorized to say that Mr Webster had nothing to do with Hiram Fuller . "especting the pamphlet con saining his Buffalo. Syracuse, and Albany speeches. Mr. Webster is grateful to the New York Berald in its ento the Union Committee, at its request—that was all. The Control Land Commission is complete at last.

Cos Doniphan of Missouri: James Wilson, of California, ormerly member of Congress; and James Innis Thorn, ton of Alabama now compose it.

The statement in the Tribuse, that Mr. Webster has and faithful report of there. He furnished the spraches proposed a joint protectorate with England and France. for the Central American States, is not correct. By the existing treaty with England that power has agreed to do away with her protectorate over Mosquito, and, it is scarcely necessary to say, Mr. Webster does not desire that odicus system. Mr. Webster has not changed his views, as contained in his Panama speech, nor need there be any fear that he will abandon the Monroe doctrine Negotiations are progressing for the settlement of the Central American questions, and the placing those States in a more favorable position than they now occupy. For this purpose, it is understood that a joint treaty, which will extend to them inutual commercial advantages, has been proposed. England joining in the matter, and, through her minister, formally abandoning all elaims to a protectorate of any description. No effort will be spared to induce the States to form a federal union, as the only means by which stability can be insured. The negotiations are in an advanced state, and from the spirit evinced on all sides, a satisfactory conclusion may speedily be antici-pated.

Colonel Doniphan, of Missouri, and General James Wilson, formants of Nor Hermann and General James in a more favorable position than they now occupy. For sides, a satisfactory conclusion may specify be anterpated.

Colonel Doniphan, of Miscouri, and General James Wilson-formerly of New Hampshire, but now of California-have been appointed Commissioners to adjust California land takes, and, it is stated, they will accept. The board will thus consist of Thornton Poniphas, and Wilson, with Dr. Charles A Davis as Secretary.

The California Indian Commissioners report to the Indian Burrau that they concluded a treaty with the Signate, Coconoon, Potopante, Apangases, Apiache, and Awalashe tribes of California Indians, on the 19th March last. The Indians coded all their lands, and concented to be beauted on four townships between Nercedo and be beated on four townships between Merce clumps rivers. They bind themselves to rem acts of heatility or aggression against our citizens and to live in friendship with all. The Indian tribes re moved to their new homes the next day, under the su-perintendence of Commissioner Mores.

Scramble—Perjury—Supposed Murder, &c.
The excellent and full report in the New York Herald of the trial of Collier, the cashier of the Havre de Grace Bank, caused such a throng at the counter of your agent, Mr. Henry Taylor, yesterday morning, that not a copy of his immense package, except those reserved for daily subscribers, could be had after breakfast. Bank directors, bank presidents, cashiers, and clerks, joined in the rush, all anxious to obtain an insight into Plainfield banking, as managed at Havre de Grace, under the surveillance of that renowned personage. Charley Wood, who seems to have been manufactured of bosed wood. The Havre de Grace directors and president—Messrs. Thos. O. Hopkins, James T. Sullivan, Charles F. A. Cole, Wm. W. Verdun, and Oyrus Huntington—proved themselves, beyond all cavil, to be unapproachable for greenness and simple housety. During the life of the bank, they stood ready to till a lance against any one who dared to intimate that they did not consider it the soundest bank in the State; and a few months before the explosion, they appeared in public print as signers to a proclamation against all douotirs. After the catastrophe, they still had confidence, and issued a second proclamation, intimasting that all would yet be right, and promising a statement, which has not yet appeared. A half dozen car loads of the Odd Fellows of this city left this morning in the cars for Columbia. Pa., accompanied by a band of music, with their banners and regula to take part in the delication of a new lodge. They will be joined there by twelve ledges from Philadelphis, four from York, four from Laucaster, and fire from Harrisburg, with the Columbia lodges, and others.

CHATHAM HARNOR—The new entrance Into Chatham Harbor was sounded out last week. In the Schannel the shoalest place found had nine feet of water on it at low tide, and the water is constantly growing deeper. In the part of the channel where the beach was, the sand is washed entirely away, and there is lo feet at low water, and mindy bottem. At first there were two pasages through, with a narrow strip of beach between. This strip is now nearly washed away, and as covered at half tide. The N channel has less water than the S. but there is authoicat depth at high water for fashermen and vessels not deawing more than 10 feet. The tide continues to be very rapid, running in the strength of the tide six knots. Four men cannot row a boat squiast it. The old entrance has become so shallow that a boat cannot pass out at low water. By this change Chatham Lights have become useless as a direction for entering the harbor. The interests of commerce require that a small light boat about for constitute of constitute of the sand time.—I yarmouth Register.
